

News of Interest to All Washington Churchgoers

Many Special Sermons Will Be Given Tomorrow In Washington Churches

"Have We Won the War?" will be the subject of an address by Fred B. Smith, of New York, at Liberty Hut tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Smith is well known both in New York and Washington as an orator and Christian layman. At one time he was senior religious work secretary of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, and is now chairman of the commission on interchurch federation of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

During the war he was overseas with a branch of the "Y" and has written a number of articles on his experience at the front and in the devastated areas.

Special Music Provided.
Tomorrow afternoon's meeting will be under the auspices of the local "Y" and will be open to the public. William Knowles Cooper, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will preside, and Percy S. Foster will lead the singing, assisted by a choir from the Business Women's Council and Mrs. Page McK. Etchison at the piano. The ushers will be furnished by the Billy Sunday Tabernacle Workers.

No ticket of admission will be required. The "Y" workers are anxious that as many of the people of the city as possible avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the speaker.

Temple Baptist Church.
The Rev. T. T. Muir, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, will speak at the church tomorrow morning and evening. His subject will be "The Bible and the World," and at the evening service he will speak on "An Enraged General."

First Baptist Church.
The subject will be "How Much Do You Know About God's Plan for the Redemption of Man?"

Fifth Baptist Church.
"Ten Facts About Heaven" will be the subject of Dr. John E. Briggs' sermon at the church tomorrow evening. His talk is the third of a series, "The Tomorrow of Life." As a sermon prelude he will discuss "Dr. Russell H. Conwell and Spiritualism."

First Baptist Church.
Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Sixteenth and O streets northwest, has announced that his morning sermon tomorrow will be "Is the Bible Anything or Everything?" His evening sermon will be "Concealed Critics of Christianity." The church is celebrating its 75th anniversary on Sunday, Dr. Tupper has been with its congregation since his return from his trip through the South.

Senior Spencer, of Missouri, will address the church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Senator Spencer was his teacher in one of the largest bible classes of St. Louis before coming to Washington.

Centennial Baptist Church.
"Washington Heavens" is the subject of the sermon that the Rev. E. Hez Swem, pastor of the Centennial Baptist Church, will deliver tomorrow evening. His morning sermon will be on "Salvation and Intuition." The church is celebrating its 100th anniversary on Sunday, and the building of the present home of the church, and will be observed by special services at both morning and evening services. A musical program has been prepared by Mrs. Ruby Potter and Prof. Louis A. Jetter, Jr.

Petworth Baptist Church.
In the absence of the Rev. P. Paul Langhorne, who is confined to his home by illness, the Rev. R. R. Rixey, of Fredericksburg, Va., will speak tomorrow at the Petworth Baptist Church. His morning sermon will be on "World Conditions." In the evening he will speak on "Worldly Wisdom." Final arrangements have been made for the drive for funds to build a new home for the church, and every member canvass will start on Monday evening. The Sunday school and its individual classes have already contributed sufficient funds to make approximately $15,000. At least $75,000 will be needed to build the church.

Immanuel Baptist Church.
The committee on annual canvass or the Immanuel Baptist Church has arranged for the canvassers to meet for final instructions on Friday evening, March 19, according to the announcement made yesterday by the chairman, E. H. DeGroot.

Ninth Street Christian Church.
Members and officers of the Ninth Street Christian Church regard the revival services being held at the church as one of the most successful revival campaigns ever held in the city. The services are being conducted by Dr. Jesse T. Kellems, the well-known evangelist, and Harold Richards, the singer and song leader. Since the revival over 150 persons have united with the church, and great crowds have been in attendance regularly. The services are held each night, with the exception of Saturday.

Free Methodists.
Services at the Free Methodist church tomorrow will be conducted by Silas E. Robb and Clark Main. The speakers for the services are the speakers furnished by the Young Men's Christian Association, the illness of the regular pastor will prevent his attendance.

Sixth Presbyterian Church.
Page McK. Etchison, of the local branch of the Y. M. C. A., will speak tomorrow at 3 o'clock at the church. Dr. Etchison is the religious director of the "Y."

Young Women's Christian Association.
Vesper services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian Association, Fourteenth and G streets northwest. W. J. Showalter will speak.

Church of Christ.
The Rev. W. S. Long, pastor of the Church of Christ, will speak tomorrow at 8 o'clock at the church. The services are held on the second floor of the Masonic Temple, Ninth and F streets northwest. The Bible class will meet at 10 o'clock in the morning.

All Souls' Church.
The Liberal Religious Union of All Souls' Church will be addressed tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock by Commissioner Philander P. Claxton of the United States Bureau of Education. His subject will be "A Richer Moral Ideal."

First Congregational Church.
Dr. Jason Noble Pierce, of Boston, is scheduled to speak at the First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, tomorrow morning and evening. Dr. Pierce is pastor of one of the leading churches of Boston, and is representative of all that is best and noblest in New England Congregationalism.

At the evening services the choir and solo quartet will render part of "The Mockery on Calvary," of Gail's Passion Music.

CHURCH UNION ASSURED HERE

Federation of Protestant Faiths in D. C. Probably Organized Monday.

More than enough delegates to assure the organization of a federation of Protestant churches in Washington already have registered for the organization meeting at the Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church South, Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The preliminary committee announced that the federation would be organized at as many as fifty churches, and that the movement would be organized by the federation of Protestant churches in Washington already have registered for the organization meeting at the Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church South, Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The preliminary committee announced that the federation would be organized at as many as fifty churches, and that the movement would be organized by the federation of Protestant churches in Washington already have registered for the organization meeting at the Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church South, Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

Epworth League Notes

M. E. Church North.
The devotional meeting for tomorrow evening is "Patience and the Rewards." The references are found in I Cor., 13:4-7; Luke, 21:19. District cabinet officers will visit the following local chapters on Sunday evening: Miss Edith Nash and Miss Edna McBride, Seat Pleasant, Md.; Miss Cora Jesson, Hamline; Miss Mildred Loudon and Miss Edna Stackhouse, Congress Heights; Frank B. Davis, Douglass Heights; and Miss Mildred Loudon, Congress Heights.

Saint Thomas' Church.
"Christ on the Eve of Visiting the Unseen World" will be the subject of the Rev. E. Smith's talk at the church of St. Thomas tomorrow. This is one of the series of sermons, "The Unseen World with Reference to Spiritualism," that the Rev. Smith has been delivering during the past few weeks. His subject for tomorrow evening will be "Splendid Failures." At the morning services he will speak on "The Social Service of a Church Performs."

Church of Our Father.
For the past three Sundays the Rev. L. M. Powers has been presenting a series of lectures illustrated by lantern slides. They will continue tomorrow evening. His subject for tomorrow evening will be "Splendid Failures." At the morning services he will speak on "The Social Service of a Church Performs."

Wesleyan Pentecostal.
The Rev. John F. Owen, of Alabama, is conducting a series of revival services at the Wesleyan Pentecostal Church that will continue until March 21.

Petworth M. E. Church.
The Rev. G. Ellis Williams, pastor of the Petworth M. E. Church, is scheduled to speak at both the morning and evening services of the church tomorrow. His morning topic will be "The Center of Faith" and at the evening services he will speak on "Whosoever Will."

Peek Memorial.
The Rev. Irving Ketchum will speak at the church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Senator Spencer was his teacher in one of the largest bible classes of St. Louis before coming to Washington.

Foundry Methodist Church.
Dr. Herbert F. Randolph, pastor of the Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, Sixteenth and P streets northwest, will speak tomorrow morning on "The Thrift of the Soul." The church is celebrating its 75th anniversary on Sunday, and the building of the present home of the church, and will be observed by special services at both morning and evening services. A musical program has been prepared by Mrs. Ruby Potter and Prof. Louis A. Jetter, Jr.

Emmanuel Episcopal Church.
The Bishop of Washington will administer the sacrament of confirmation at Emmanuel Episcopal Church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The candidates will be presented by the rector, the Rev. William Oscar Roome, Jr.

Church of Life and Joy.
Baron Eugene Fersen, of Moscow, Russia, will speak at the church of Life and Joy tomorrow morning and evening. Dr. Fersen is a nephew of the late Count Leo Tolstoy, and is considered one of the leading metaphysical teachers and healers of the world.

First Spiritualist Church.
The Rev. Alfred H. Terry, pastor of the First Spiritualist Church, will speak tomorrow at Pythian Temple on "The Soul's Awakening." Dr. Terry will deliver spirit messages following his talk.

Free Methodists.
Services at the Free Methodist church tomorrow will be conducted by Silas E. Robb and Clark Main. The speakers for the services are the speakers furnished by the Young Men's Christian Association, the illness of the regular pastor will prevent his attendance.

Sixth Presbyterian Church.
Page McK. Etchison, of the local branch of the Y. M. C. A., will speak tomorrow at 3 o'clock at the church. Dr. Etchison is the religious director of the "Y."

Young Women's Christian Association.
Vesper services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian Association, Fourteenth and G streets northwest. W. J. Showalter will speak.

Church of Christ.
The Rev. W. S. Long, pastor of the Church of Christ, will speak tomorrow at 8 o'clock at the church. The services are held on the second floor of the Masonic Temple, Ninth and F streets northwest. The Bible class will meet at 10 o'clock in the morning.

All Souls' Church.
The Liberal Religious Union of All Souls' Church will be addressed tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock by Commissioner Philander P. Claxton of the United States Bureau of Education. His subject will be "A Richer Moral Ideal."

First Congregational Church.
Dr. Jason Noble Pierce, of Boston, is scheduled to speak at the First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, tomorrow morning and evening. Dr. Pierce is pastor of one of the leading churches of Boston, and is representative of all that is best and noblest in New England Congregationalism.

At the evening services the choir and solo quartet will render part of "The Mockery on Calvary," of Gail's Passion Music.

PROGRESS REPORTED IN EPISCOPAL DRIVE

Clergy and laymen of the Washington Diocese of the Episcopal Church will meet in the interest of the nationwide campaign, now being conducted by the denomination, in Epiphany Parish Hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

Bishop Alfred Harding will preside. Dr. R. W. Foster and the Rev. D. W. Currin will report on the progress of the campaign. Approximately 60 per cent of the quota of the Washington Diocese has been subscribed.

Dr. Patton also will speak in the Church of the Epiphany tomorrow evening.

SPEAKERS SELECTED FOR LENT SERVICES

Speakers at midday Lenten services at the Church of the Epiphany next week will be: Monday, Canon William L. de Vries, of the Washington Cathedral; Tuesday, the Rev. H. D. Sterrett, rector of All Souls' Church; Wednesday, the Rev. R. H. Browning, of the Church of the Epiphany; Thursday, the Rev. Edward S. Rollins, of St. John's Church; Friday, Prof. Rollins, of the Virginia Theological Seminary.

THE BIBLE

Translated out of the original languages and from the edition known as "Our Mother's Bible."

LEVITICUS. (Chapter XIV—Continued.)

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, and he shall go into it to see the plague: if he be a plague, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

39 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

40 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

41 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

42 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

43 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

44 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

45 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

46 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

47 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

48 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

49 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

50 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

51 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

52 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

53 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

54 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

55 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

56 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

THE BIBLE

Translated out of the original languages and from the edition known as "Our Mother's Bible."

LEVITICUS. (Chapter XIV—Continued.)

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, and he shall go into it to see the plague: if he be a plague, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

39 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

40 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

41 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

42 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

43 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

44 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

45 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

46 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

47 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

48 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

49 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

50 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

51 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

52 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

53 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

54 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

55 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

56 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

THE BIBLE

Translated out of the original languages and from the edition known as "Our Mother's Bible."

LEVITICUS. (Chapter XIV—Continued.)

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, and he shall go into it to see the plague: if he be a plague, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

39 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

40 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

41 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

42 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

43 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

44 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

45 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

46 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

47 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

48 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

49 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

50 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

51 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

52 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

53 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

54 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

55 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

56 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

THE BIBLE

Translated out of the original languages and from the edition known as "Our Mother's Bible."

LEVITICUS. (Chapter XIV—Continued.)

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, and he shall go into it to see the plague: if he be a plague, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

39 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

40 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

41 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

42 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

43 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

44 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

45 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

46 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

47 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

48 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

49 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

50 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

51 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

52 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

53 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

54 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and he shall plaster the house with clay.

55 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

56 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days, and the priest shall come again, and he shall look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

Where to Worship

BAPTIST.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

SIXTEENTH AND O STREETS.
Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, Minister.
Services at 11 and 8 by Dr. Tupper.

11 A. M.—"Is the Bible Anything or Everything?"

8 P. M.—"Concealed Critics of Christianity."

Gospel music by quartet and chorus.

Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; John Ruten, Superintendent. Senior Spencer, of Missouri, will address the Men's Class at 10 o'clock. Come and hear him.

C. E. Society meets at 6, with social hour and hot refreshments. Devotional meeting at 6:45 to 7:45. Join this live society.

Swedish services in the Swedish language, by Rev. C. A. G. Jensen, at 9:30 Sunday and 8 o'clock on Friday, March 19.

Come and join our chorus choir for Sunday night only. Rehearsal every Saturday night at 7:45.